These

Memories

Dear Mr. Carlson,

We should like to thank you for your sincere guidance as our junior sponsor. Your efforts during the past years not only have truly enhanced our class but also have personally harvested many friendships.

We dedicate this yearbook to you in the hope that throughout the years to come you will remember our class with fond memories. And with this dedication we extend to you our wishes for a golden future.

Yours sincerely,

The Class of 1967

Message

One of the greatest privileges of our country is the opportunity to acquire an education. In our form of society, it is more than a privilege to acquire an education; it is an obligation - an obligation to our country and to our future family. When we waste our opportunity for an education, we have inflicted a triple hurt, to ourselves, to our family, and to our country. Everyone can profit by making our obligation an opportunity.

The Tiger welcomes the new teachers to our school. We have appreciated all the time and efforts the faculty has put into helping us gain invaluable knowledge and encouraging our quest for learning. Without the guidance of the faculty of Hayden High School our paths would not have been nearly so wide, so straight, or so clear. We have been led, not only in the way of learning, but also citizenship and participation. Perhaps the best way to show the sincere appreciation is to continue in the ways the faculty has taught us.

Last Will & Testament

We, the class of 1967, being of sound minds, and always using them to the best of our abilities, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

- I, Bob Barnes, will my girl chasing enthusiasm to Leon Bruchez in hopes that he'll catch a pretty one.
- I, Charles Beck, will my quiet ways to Harley Bailey.
- I, Tim Bertram, will my wrestling ability to Chuck Signs in order that he might go to state as soon as possible.
- I, Ivan Carns, will my car to anyone who will take it in order that I might get a faster one.
- I, Lee Fulton, will my ability to stay mad at Mr. Harris to anybody who can stay mad all year.
- I, Carol Howard, will my ability to hurt myself to anyone who can live through it.
- I, Lois Kagie, will my ability to argue with Mr. Hiskey to anyone who can convince him.
- I, Debi LeBlanc, will my ability to flirt to anyone who can dare compete with me.
- I, David Ragan, will my clarinet to anyone who promises to practice faithfully like I do. Ha!
- I, Eddie Salazar, will my winning attitude to Cassius Clay in hopes that he will always win.
- I, Cheryl Signs, will my driving ability to anyone who is brave enough to ride with me.
- I, Ron Watts, will my car to anyone who has enough money to run it.
- I, Helen Wiley, will my sweet personality and even temper to anyone who will take it.
- I, Bill Yoast, will my sense of humor to Miss Conway so she will learn to appreciate me.
- I, Mary Yoast, will my ability to chase sheep when Gary's home to anybody who can get an excused absence.
